

UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
DISTRICT OF MINNESOTA

IN RE: ANTWOYN SPENCER

Case No. 19-MC-0013 (NEB)

ORDER

Plaintiff Antwoyn Terrell Spencer was restricted from filing new cases in this District unless he is represented by counsel or receives prior written authorization from a judicial officer of this District. See Spencer v. Watson, No. 17-CV-3999 (SRN/LIB). Recently, the Court concluded that Spencer's attempt to initiate new habeas corpus proceedings lacked an arguable basis in law or fact and was thus frivolous. [ECF No. 3.] On April 2, 2019, Spencer filed a motion to amend his habeas petition, repeating the issues raised in his petition, [ECF No. 1], which this Court already considered. [ECF No. 5.] Spencer's one-page written submission does not add or change anything to the merits of his initial filing. Nor does it set forth any valid basis for reconsideration under the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure. Given these deficiencies, the Court finds it appropriate to summarily deny Spencer's motion. [ECF No. 5.]¹ The Court also certifies that any appeal taken from this denial would not be in good faith, and thus any request to proceed in forma pauperis on appeal will be denied on that basis. See Fed. R. App. P. 24(a)(3)(A).

IT IS SO ORDERED.
